Sample Outline of Chapter One – Baptist Doctrine

The Actual Lesson on Chapter 1 will be presented next week.

This outline is being shared to help you get a grasp of the depth of future lectures. Please don't expect an outline covering every lesson. Plan to simply receive an audio lecture on each lesson. As we are just getting started, wanted to share this as part of the Overview of the Lessons in the book. The first lecture will address material in Lesson 1. Taking this approach will allow time for those who want a book to order and receive it before the actual lessons begin.

I. Definition of Terms

- A. Baptist
- B. Doctrine

Optional Written Assignment for This Lecture

There will be some who would like to get started digging into this material. Knowing this to be the case, here is an optional assignment which could be completed without necessarily having the book in hand. If you would like a review and response, please complete and submit the following in a timely manner.

In three pages or less, list and explain those doctrines which you understand to be uniquely Baptist. There is No limit to the time frame of those doctrines you might include in your list. The key here is to include those doctrines you know are “Uniquely Baptist”. Be careful to avoid getting yourself stuck in over analyzing this assignment.
