Page 49 – Protestant Teaching: Invisible Church and Invisible Kingdom

According to this theory, all born again make up the Church

- Allowed Protestants to say they, as true church, departed from RCC
- Also allowed them to claim a spiritual lineage from time of Christ
- If salvation brings into “church”; baptism taught for salvation
- Protestants kept infant baptism heresy based on baptism for salvation

Page 49 – Invisible Kingdom

The idea of an invisible kingdom leads to idea of spiritual kingdom

- Teaches that the kingdom is in the heart of child of God, Luke 17:20-21
- Status of baptism and the Lord’s Supper as Church ordinances is lost

Page 50 – Is the Kingdom of Heaven and Kingdom of God the same?

Some have attempted to say KoH is made up of all saved but KoG is Churches

- Do the scriptures support a distinction between the two?
- 10 Scripture references to compare
  - The Kingdom is at hand: Matt 4:17 and Mar 1:15
  - The Kingdom is for the Poor in Spirit: Matt 5:3 and Luke 6:20
  - The least in the Kingdom is greater than John: Matt 11:11 and Luke 7:28
  - Church is to know mysteries of Kingdom, Matt 13:11 and Mark 4:11
  - Kingdom is like a man who sowed a field, Matt 13:24 and Mark 4:26
  - Kingdom is like a grain of mustard seed, Matt 13:31 and Mar 4:30-31
  - Kingdom is like leaven, Matt 13:33 and Luke 13:20-21
  - Entering the Kingdom, Matt 18:3 and Luke 18:17
  - Of such is the Kingdom, Matt 19:14 and Mark 10:14
  - Those who trust in riches and the Kingdom, Matt 19:23 and Luke 18:24

Page 53 – Serving God in Kingdom

To Serve God is to do so in the Kingdom

- The Kingdom is made up of all scriptural Churches
- The Churches are the only entity that can exercise the laws of the Kingdom
- Exercising the laws of the Kingdom makes true Churches the executives
- Proof Texts:
  - Should we serve Him? Job 21:15
  - Promise to servants of the Lord, John 12:26
  - It will be clear who served God and who failed to do so, Mal 3:13-18
  - We need grace to serve the Lord, Heb 12:28-29
